Retirement Option Comparison – Tier Three Employees

Explore the unique features of the Optional Retirement Plan (ORP) and the Oregon Public Service Retirement Plan (OPSRP) for those employees hired on or after August 29, 2003.

The Optional Retirement Plan (ORP) and the Oregon Public Service Retirement Plan (OPSRP) are each intended to provide you with income during your retirement years. These plans share a number of common attributes, but differ in important aspects. This guide provides an overview of the key features of the ORP and OPSRP.

First, are you an OPSRP/ORP Tier Three eligible employee?

If you were hired in a qualifying position between August 29, 2003 and June 30, 2014, and have never worked for another Oregon PERS employer, you are an OPSRP or ORP Tier Three employee.

OPSRP is a program of the Public Employees Retirement System (PERS).

This document compares the OPSRP and Optional Retirement Plan (ORP) provisions that apply to OPSRP/ORP Tier Three employees.

This material is designed for general service employees.

If you were a PERS member or enrolled in the ORP before August 29, 2003, your benefits are described in the ‘Comparing Your Retirement Options’ brochure for Tier One and Tier Two Employees (Guide #3). If you were first employed by the Oregon Public Universities on or after July 1, 2014, your benefits are described in the brochure for Tier Four employees (Guide #5).

Tier One – If you were hired in a qualifying position before January 1, 1996, you are a Tier One employee.

Tier Two – If you were hired in a qualifying position on or after January 1, 1996, you are a Tier Two employee.

Tier Four – If you were hired on or after July 1, 2014, you are a Tier Four employee.
