Documentation will not be required. Distributions will be approved by the record keeper. Payback of distribution will not affect contribution limits during the years it is paid back. More guidance is expected from IRS on payback of distribution and taxes. This distribution is available in the TDI with all 3 vendors, but will ONLY be available in the ORP at Fidelity and TIAA.
Loans (increase in amount and deferment of payment)	Maximum loan of $50,000 or 50% of the participant account balance is increased to $100,000 or 100% of participant account balance. Available on or after March 27, 2020 through September 22, 2020. Repayment can be delayed by one year from the date of the loan. Participants who get a loan after March, 27 may delay their loan payments for one year and participants who already have a loan may also defer those payments for one year. After that one year period, the loan will be re-amortized to account for the interest accrued during that year.	TDI participants at AIG, Fidelity and TIAA. ORP Participants at AIG only. Eligibility is the same as it is for CRDs.	Participants can self-certify that they meet criteria. Loans are not available in the TIAA and Fidelity ORPs. These loans will be available in the ORP at AIG only until 9/22/2020. No future loans will be available in the ORP after that date.

RMDs	RMDs required to be made in calendar year 2020 are waived, including RMDs due as a death benefit in accordance with the five-year rule and that time is extended by one year. This would include those who turned 70½ in 2019 (prior to the recent law that moved the age to 72) and who delayed their RMDs to April 15, 2020. (it may be too late to implement that April payment)	ORP and TDI Participants are eligible. The age for RMDs as of 12/31/2019 is 72 – this was a recent change from the SECURE Act of 2019.
