

TDI Plan Highlights

Disclaimer – Please read carefully

The TDI Guide is intended to assist in the administration of the plan, and it includes a summary of common TDI Plan provisions. To obtain additional information about the plan, contact your campus' benefits office for specific assistance, or visit the OPURP website here to view the official plan document.

In case of conflict between this guide and the official plan documents of the Tax-Deferred Investment 403(b) Plan (TDI) and Oregon state law, the official plan documents, Oregon state law, and federal regulations will govern.

Consider the investment objectives, risks, and expenses of the investment options before investing. Prospectuses and fund fact sheets can be obtained by contacting the TDI Provider. Please read carefully before investing.
